War Department Urges Completion of Red Cross Quotas of Surgical Dressings

Slogans are bywords to bring attention of necessities before the public, "Bundles for Britain," "Bombs for Berlin," etc. Now we must create a new one, say "Bandages for the Brave." . . . Not only must this be a byword but an actual fact.

Do Not Fail Them

THE Third War Loan Drive in Hancock County is moving along slowly, but daily the sale of bonds is increasing. The War Finance Committee for Hancock County is rapidly contacting the individuals throughout the county with the result that more and more people are becoming conscious of the fact that everyone who is able to buy even a $25.00 War Bond, must do so in order for Hancock County to realize its quota of $342,000.00.

At the close of business on Wednesday night there were actual sales of approximately $52,000.00. This leaves a balance of $290,000.00 to be raised in the county. This sounds like a huge sum of money, but we all know that our quota is based on bank deposits. The Treasury Department has set quotas throughout the nation, based on 171|2% of the bank deposits. Our quota in Hancock County is no different from any other quota in the nation. The money is on deposit in our local banks, and certainly this money belongs to individuals throughout the county. We do not believe that your government is asking too much when they ask you to lend them 171|2% of the money that you have on deposit in the bank.

We believe that it is the patriotic duty of every American citizen to purchase war bonds, and it should not be necessary that a sales talk be made to any person who has money on hand; for, in the finals, if this great nation is not victorious in this war, those who are holding on to the money will soon realize that it

No one should wait to be approached, or to be asked to buy bonds, nor should he have to be urged to increase the amount of his purchase. He should do that which he knows, as an American citizen, is his duty.

We should be happy to lend a bit of help to the fighting men of this nation. These people who are engaged in the work of the War Finance Committee in the county are giving their time and their energy to try to sell the necessary quota for the county. We are certain that the people of this county are not going to disappoint them, but that they are going to take a portion of the money that they have and invest it in one of the best investments in the world, THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, so let's march on with that "Never Die" spirit that exists in the heart of every American, and put Hancock County and at King's Point, New York. over the top by September 25th.

MAIL CHRISTMAS PACKAGES

TITH more than two million soldiers in foreign lands, and thousands of sailors scattered over the oceans, the problem of handling Christmas packages becomes immense.

If those at home will follow instructions and mail their gifts to men in service the packages will be delivered by Christmas day. Obviously, if everybody waits until the last day to mail their parcels the postal services will be overwhelming and delays will be inevitable.

The War Department has announced that regulations re- will be a candidate for the full term gram committee held a meeting Satquiring a request from an overseas soldier will be waived between September 15 and October 15. It urgs th public to provide our men overseas with a "flood of Christmas spirit from their homes" and it pledges that every gift mailed by October 15th will be delivered by Christmas morning.

Last year the Army Postal Service handled 5,000,000 packages the November election and get their Italy is another step toward ultimate and the load this year is expected to be 10,000,000. Sinc every parcel must be opened, inspected and rewrapped before leaving this country, it is necessary that the deadline be observed if gifts are to arrive promptly.

Since around ten per cent of the packages sent out in 1942 were incorrectly addressed it is important for every sender to include the soldier's full name, rank, Army serial number, service organization and unit, A. P. O. number and the port of embarkation Postmaster.

We pass the information along to all our readers in order that Hancock County service men will get their Christmas packages on time. Additional details can be secured from the local postoffice. Meanwhile, everybody should get busy at once and mail their packages as early as possible.

A VAST AREA TO DEFEND

COME idea of the vast distances involved in the war against Japan is apparent when one notes that American Liberator bombers, flying from India, have opened their aerial offensive against Car Nicobar.

The bombers flew one thousand miles to reach the island which is seven hundred miles south of Burma and about three hundred fifty miles northwest of Sumatra. It is nearly four thousand miles from Car Nicobar to Marcus, which was recently attacked in the North Pacific.

Already, it is plain that the pressure against Japanese positions is being increased. As the forces of the United Nations become stronger, the pressure will grow and, eventually, the Japanese defense will be too thin and the inevitable breakthrough will occur.

MORE DOCTORS IN UNIFORM

PEPRESENTATIVES of the medical profession in conference with military authorities, have announced that 6,000 more doctors are needed in the immediate future to serve the armed forces. The American Medical Journal, in explanation of the demand for more doctors, says: "As the war continues and intensifies, new needs for the services of the medical profession become apparent. An army in motion and one engaged in the kind of aggressive combat that now concerns our armed forces needs physicians in even greater numbers than have heretofore been demanded. Many thousands of interned aliens and prisoners are now the burden of the United States and must be given medical care."

It is up to civilians more than ever before to cooperate with the remaining medical men to the end that everyone will receive the best that can be given to them under the circumstances. If this cooperation is given there need be little hardship. Remember, if you want to consult your doctor—first do it by telephone, and follow his advice to the letter.

PAPER CIVILIZATION

THE present civilization of the world can almost be called a paper civilization because of the important role played by this relatively cheap but extremely valuable product.

Not only do newspapers depend upon it, but many other business and commercial products are based upon pulp. This explains the present campaign to urger farmers and others to make an effort to supply pulpwool at the present time.

It is interesting to recall that the Chinese used paper before the beginning of the Christian era and that their basic method of manufacture is followed to this day. The name, of course, comes from the papyrus plant but its product has been almost entirely supplanted by paper, which was introduced to Europe by the Saracens in Spain. by the Saracens in Spain.

by Joe Marsh

Pete Swanson fancies himself as an armchair strategist. Sometimes he gets so tangled up, I just can't resist tryin' to straighten him out.

For instance, the other day he was waxing indignant about our soldiers being allowed to buy beer right in camp. Said that was just coddling the troops and would ruin discipline.

I told him the actual facts had already been established by a study the Government made. Their report said chaplains and the military police agree that instead of ruining discipline, 3.2 beer sold in Army camps provides our soldiers with a mild form of relaxation without impairing their efficiency.

Well, Pete allowed that the chaplains and military police are a pretty good authority on what's right for soldiers. I've noticed lately he's been confining his remarks to the broader phases of strategy.

ONES IGHTENO OF TOP SOIL LOST 15-MINUTE STORM

But Similar Experimental Plots Protected By Grass Cover or Straw Mulch Lost No Soil, Little Water

State College, Miss.—The value of emphasized by exact measurements of soil lost reported by Russell Woodburn, Mississippi Agricultural "It is a matter of common obser-Experiment Station, showing losses vation," said Mr. Woodburn, "that Experiment Station, showing losses due to a single rain ranging from run-off waters from woods and pasno loss whatever on protected plots tures carry but little soil. Our soil to 19 tons soil lost from bare plots. This unusual record was set at State College on August 15, when a light rain was followed in about 2 cotton, corn, or bare land. Various hours by a 15-minute downpour of 1.51 inches. It was recorded at the Experiment Station soil erosion plots, where the run-off from various plots are bare of vegetation, some are sodded in pasture greens, some are mulched with straw, some

A bare plot, on a slope of 9 percent, lost over 19 tons of soil per acre due to the 15-minute rain. This means about 1/7 inch or fertile topsoil was lost. Two other bare plots lost 12 fons per acre. On flats where straw had been worked into the top 6 inches of soil,

erosion was 6 tons per acre, but where the straw was on the top of the soil there was no soil loss and no water loss,

A plot with good grass cover suffered no soil loss and practically no Soil losses from this one thunder storm (the like of which is expected only once in 17 years) coincide closely with 6 months record from the same plots.

The latter half of 1942 was exceptionally dry, with less than 15 inches of rain during the half year. Nevertheless, the cultivated, hare plot-lost 21 tons of soil per acre: the plot which had 2 tons of straw per soil cover in preventing erosion is acre worked in lost 9 tons, and the straw-mulched plot lost one-tenth ton of soil per acre.

loss measurements indicate that far less erosion occurs on well covered areas than on cultivated fields of practices are being studied, seeking to end the presently unavoidable loss from cultivated fields, including terracing, strip-cropping, cover crops,
